

DEPUTY CITY ATTORNEY IIClass Definition*

Under supervision, provides professional legal services for the City Council, boards, commissions, offices, and departments of the City.

Distinguishing Characteristics

Deputy City Attorney II is the working level class in the Deputy City Attorney series. Incumbents act as deputies to the City Attorney and perform a variety of professional legal duties. Duties involve handling civil and criminal problems including the preparation of cases for trial, the drafting of resolutions and documents, and the preparation of legal opinions. Incumbents are expected to use professional judgement and skill in the performance of assignments, the acceptability of which is subject to review by professional superiors. This class differs from Deputy City Attorney III in that the latter is the advanced working class in which incumbents perform a broader range of duties involving more complex legal problems with a minimum amount of supervision. It differs from Deputy City Attorney I in that incumbents of the latter work under close supervision and on less complex legal problems. These are unclassified positions in which incumbents serve at the will of the City Attorney.
